

JOB DESCRIPTION

JOB TITLE:	SOFTWARE DEVELOPER
IMMEDIATE SUPERVISOR:	SOFTWARE ENGINEERING MANAGER

Reporting to the Software Engineering Manager, the Software Engineer will assist in the development of applications and liaise directly with the customer to meet agreed specifications. Based in our offices in Carrickfergus, the Software Engineer will be part of the software team and will also provide customer support as required.

Responsibilities:

- To develop, test and implement software to satisfy product/customer specifications
- To work as part of a close knit team of hardware & software engineers to provide the software element of product developments
- To liaise with the end customer to ensure that specifications are met
- Carry out any other task entrusted by their immediate supervisor

Essential Requirements:

- Educated to Degree level in Computer Science (or 3-5 years relevant experience in lieu)
- Experience in MS Visual C++, C#, Java on Windows platforms and object oriented programming
- Experience in My SQL, SQL Server and database architecture
- Familiarity with Windows platform
- Ability to liaise and communicate with external customers in English in a clear and professional manner
- Hold a valid passport and a full driving license

Preferred Requirements:

- Experience in LabVIEW

Skills:

- Working knowledge of Microsoft Office
- Ability to meet deadlines and work in a fast paced environment
- Be self motivated, be able to manage time and set priorities
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Team player
- Excellent analytical skills
- Ability to adapt to changing requirements
- Ability to easily establish good relationships with customers
- Ability to develop well structured, reliable, maintainable and well documented software using a variety of high level development environments and languages
- Familiarity with structured design methodologies and notation

Salary:

£20,000 - £28,000 depending on experience